Below are the guidelines for the program:

- ◆ Each family member registered is required to show:
  1. Social security card or TIN number for every member of the household,
  1. Birth certificates for every member of the household (and proof of legal guardianship for non-biological children - example grandchildren, niece/nephew or foster children)
  2. Proof of address (electric bill, gas bill, or complete current lease; must be in head of household name),
  3. Proof of family income for every adult in the household (example: 2 pay stubs—No hand written pay stubs will be accepted, social security/disability award statement, and or check stub from child support) (MEDICAID CARD, WIC CARD AND LINK CARD IS INSUFFICIENT PROOF OF INCOME BY ITSELF.) <https://www.govinfo.gov/content/pkg/FR-2020-03-20/pdf/2020-05982.pdf>
  4. The head of household (person registering) must show a photo ID.
- ◆ Only one household from each legal street address can register. If two different individuals who reside in the same household wish to register together (this includes all incomes) they may do so. However, if they attempt to register separately, both parties will not be allowed to register. No registration forms will be given to those missing any of the required registration documents.

The same head of household who registered must have a photo I.D. and must come to pick up your items on Nov. 24th and Dec. 22nd.

NO ONE ELSE BUT THE HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD CAN PICK UP ITEMS or REGISTER.
